The Facilitator:

Piers Thurston is one of London’s leading coaches and facilitators specialising in transformation. He has worked with blue chip clients globally and studied across the world. His clients have included global blue chip organisations such as Unilever, Mars, Kraft, Coca Cola, Ford, HSBC, Bacardi, Tesco, and the UK government. He is a graduate of The One Thought Institute and Supercoach USA. This seminar introduces his profound expertise and grounding in Quality of Mind.

Testimonials:

I can’t think of anything else in my life where just by having a shift understanding has made so much difference”

“This approach resonates with every cell of my body, my life and work feels very different, I feel much more connected and at ease”

Programme Details:

3 days of workshops + access to online resources & discussion.

Dates: 12th & 13th May, 8th June

Venue: London

Investment: £995+vat

The Programme Format:

Programme goals: to give participants:

- A meaningful personal understanding and experience of the benefits the Principles
- An understanding of how the Principles operate as a basis for helping others

Initial 2 day seminar where we:

- Introduce the Principles
- Engage in a dialogue that allows participants to understand and absorb this for themselves in a way that makes sense to them.

Reflection:

- Access to an online lecture series so participants can gain a breadth in their understanding and see a range of applications styles of presentation.

Further 1 day seminar:

- Get a feel for how to apply what was learned to future challenges and questions.

Follow up options to enable you to deepen your understanding will be offered